

Make a Traditional Islander Drum

Wilfred ANIBA Drum (Buru buru) 1989 wood, cassowary feathers 91.4 x 17.0cm
Queensland Museum Collection

Traditional drums are made out of wood, which has been hollowed out by burning and chipping from each end until the holes met at the waist

ArtCart Activity

1. Place a paper cup upside-down on the table
2. Put glue or tape onto the bottom of cup
3. Stick the second paper cup on top
4. Fold the fabric or paper over the top
5. Place the elastic band around the top
6. You can now decorate it!

Share your creations by tagging @NewcastleArtGalleryAustralia